

Shaft Skinz® double top 10 at the Women's British Open

Professional players of Shaft Skinz put in a good showing at the Ricoh Women's British Open this past week.

2 players finishing in the top ten at the final women's 'major' of the season had Shaft Skinz on their clubs including last year's champion. Of the 13 players in the tournament who have supported the cause to 'play with color™', 6 made it through to the weekend.

There was further uptake from the participating top amateurs with another 3 players choosing to add a little color to their shafts.

On the Duramed Future's Tour Shaft Skinz also registered some success at the Alliance Bank Classic. The player tied for 9th, who is perhaps more known for her appearance on the popular Big Break:Hawaii show on The Golf Channel uses the company's blue 'New Fire' design on all her woods.

The full range of Shaft Skinz designs and a list of Shaft Skinz Tour professional players and top amateurs, including pictures of them with their colorfully decorated shafts, can be seen on the Shaft Skinz website at www.shaftskinz.com.
